

28 JANUARY 2026
2:00–5:00 CET

WEBINAR

Substantive case law at the UPC as compared to national practice.

An interactive discussion examining how UPC case law aligns or diverges from national jurisprudence with a focus on selected substantive revocation grounds, in particular added subject-matter and inventive step, as well as infringement issues, with special attention to the application of the doctrine of equivalents.

Introduction

Florence Butin

President of the Court of First Instance of the UPC

Delegates from the national IP Institutes

Moderator

Elisabetta Papa

Vice-President of the Italian Industrial Property Consultants Institute and UPC technically-qualified judge

Speakers

Renaud Fulconis

European patent attorney, French patent attorney, and UPC technically-qualified judge

Nicolai Geier

Judge at the Federal Patent Court and UPC technically-qualified judge

Alessandro Sanchini

European and Italian patent attorney, Court Technical Expert of the Italian IP courts, UPC technically-qualified judge

*Le iscrizioni all'evento si apriranno il 10 dicembre p.v., con le consuete modalità.